

I am opposed to the current concentration of media power in the hands of a few corporations and support anything that would require the diversification of broadcast ownership.